DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

I. Systematic Theology and Apologetics

The object of this school of the curriculum is to present a comprehensive treatment of Systematic Theology, incorporating, in addition to the usual treatment of the subject, the more extensive demands of the premillenarian interpretation of the Scriptures. Including the Prolegomena eleven major divisions of the subject are recognized, and the entire discipline is consummated in an intensive analysis of one hundred and eighty doctrines. The supreme aim of the course is to ground the student in the teaching of the Scriptures under each of these divisions and doctrines. The lecture method is followed, combined with comparison of classroom instruction with collateral matter from standard works on theology. The student has before him also printed copies of extensive analytical questionnaires prepared by the professor.

101 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

- (1) PROLEGOMENA. Nature and sources of theology.
- (2) BIBLIOLOGY. Seven aspects of the subject are considered.
- (3) THEOLOGY PROPER. This subject is divided into two main divisions: (a) Theism; (b) Trinitarianism.
- (4) ANGELOLOGY. Under a threefold treatment the entire revelation concerning the angels of God is investigated, including Satanology and Demonology.
- (5) ANTHROPOLOGY. The subject takes a fivefold analysis. Prescribed, first year, six hours.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD, first semester.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER, second semester.

102 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

- (6) SOTERIOLOGY. Because of the importance of this division in its bearing upon intelligent gospel preaching, an entire semester is devoted to its study. This subject is treated under two major divisions: (a) The Savior, including that which He wrought both in His death and resurrection; (b) Salvation, including the divine undertaking and its result.
- (7) ECCLESIOLOGY. This division includes much not generally treated under this subject. The aim is to examine exhaustively the second Pauline revelation, namely, the doctrine of the true Church, which occupies a large place in the structure of Christian truth.
- (8) ESCHATOLOGY. This course contemplates all in the Scriptures which was predictive at the time of its utterance. Together with the broader treatment of ecclesiology, as outlined above, this course covers that which is necessary for an untrammelled method in Biblical exposition.

Prescribed, second year, six hours.

PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER, first semester.

PROFESSOR WALVOORD, second semester.

- 103 (9) CHRISTOLOGY. The doctrine of Christ unabridged, that is, not restricted to His person but incorporating also His work and its consummation. Prescribed, first semester, third year, two hours.
PROFESSOR WALVOORD.

(10) PNEUMATOLOGY. The doctrine of the Holy Spirit, unabridged, incorporating both His person and His work in this and all ages.

Prescribed, second semester, third year, two hours.

PROFESSOR WALVOORD.

- 104 (11) DOCTRINAL SUMMARIZATION. In this course one hundred and eighty doctrines are treated, analytically, spiritually, and pedagogically. Prescribed, third year, six hours.
PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.

- 105 CHRISTIAN EVIDENCES AND APOLOGETICS. General introduction, followed by a consideration of the various classes of evidence and apologies. Two texts are employed, one semester hour being devoted to each of these divisions respectively, supplemented with lectures by the professor.

Prescribed, first year, two hours, first semester.

PROFESSOR R. T. CHAFER.

- 106 BIBLICAL HERMENEUTICS. Throughout the course the following threefold thesis is maintained:

(a) That the Bible is a self-interpreting book, throwing light upon its own great themes and disclosing the divine purpose in relation thereto; (b) that these inherent laws of interpretation are discoverable; (c) and that compliance with these laws in Bible study is necessary to a true understanding of the divine revelation. The course follows a syllabus prepared by the professor.

Prescribed, second, year, two hours, first semester.

PROFESSOR R. T. CHAFER.

- 107 REALIZATION OF THE SPIRITUAL LIFE. The aim of this course is to furnish a working knowledge of the revealed spiritual laws which govern the Christian character and service. Prescribed, first year, two hours. PROFESSOR L. S. CHAFER.

III. New Testament Literature and Exegesis

This department endeavors to train the student to do careful exegetical work in the Greek New Testament. In the first half of the undergraduate course great stress is laid on the mastery of forms and the acquisition of a working vocabulary; in the second half, on the study of syntax and work in exegesis. Use is made of the new light shed on the Greek of the New Testament by the papyri, the ostraca, and the inscriptions. Such works as Deissmann's Bible Studies and Light from the Ancient East, Milligan's Here and There Among the Papyri and Selections from the Greek Papyri, and Moulton and Milligan's Vocabulary of the Greek New Testament are available in the library.

An adequate training in the elements of Greek is a prerequisite for full standing as a Junior. Matriculates deficient in this requirement will take Course 300, Elements of Greek, eight hours, without credit, in the place of Course 302, Greek I, four hours. Such students catch up with their class in the Greek course by devoting a sufficient number of hours from elective Greek courses to complete the requirements in Greek for graduation. Students proficient enough in Greek to start with Course 302, Greek I, are free to elect any subject amongst the elective courses open to Juniors.

Beginning with the Fourteenth Annual Session (1937-1938) all candidates for the Master of Theology degree in the regular course will be required to read the entire Greek New Testament during the four-year period of the course.

- 300 THE ELEMENTS OF GREEK. This is an introductory course and is intended for the student who has had no Greek or who needs a review in the elements of the language. Davis' Beginner's Grammar of the Greek New Testament is the text used. Prerequisite year, eight hours, but not credited toward a degree.

- 302 GREEK I. During the first semester a thorough review is made of the elements of Greek. This is followed by more advanced work in Dana and Mantey's Manual Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the second semester. John's Gospel is read with care. Prescribed, first year, four hours.
PROFESSOR SIEGEL.
- 303 GREEK II. During the first semester the student reads rapidly the Gospel of Mark; during the second semester he reads 1 Corinthians, and begins to do work in exegesis. The syntax study in both semesters is based on Dana and Mantey's Manual Grammar of the Greek New Testament. Prescribed, second year, four hours.
PROFESSOR HARRISON.
- 304 GREEK III. The Lucan writings are studied in this year, the Gospel in the first semester and the Acts in the second semester. Syntax study through the year as based largely on Robertson's Grammar of the Greek New Testament in the Light of Historical Research. Prescribed, third year, six hours.

- 305 GREEK IV. The first semester is spent in the exegesis of the Epistle to the Romans; the second semester in the exegesis of the Epistle to the Hebrews. Prescribed, fourth year, four hours. PROFESSOR HARRISON.

IV. Sacred History

In this school of the curriculum the method of instruction is largely by means of lectures and recitation, together with assigned reading of standard works on the various subjects. An outstanding feature of the work in this department is that, in the interpretation of the history of the visible Church, the truth regarding the unique nature and calling of the New Testament Church is at no time obscured. This is of vital importance, as failure to recognize the purpose of God in this dispensation has resulted, and necessarily so, in a wrong interpretation of Church History.

TERMS OF ADMISSION

It is the aim of the Seminary to maintain a high standard of reverent scholarship. Students planning to enter the Christian ministry are urged to complete, whenever practicable, a regular classical course at some accredited college or university. An applicant for admission to matriculation and enrollment as a student in the Seminary must present to the Registrar the following credentials:

1. A student applying for admission by letter and not known by any member of the faculty should present the names of pastors or others of known Christian standing, to whom inquiries may be sent concerning the following: Evidence that the applicant is born again, is yielded to the will of God, is endowed with ministry gifts, and agrees essentially with the system of doctrine taught in this Seminary.

2. A college diploma or an equivalent certificate of the completion of a regular academic course. Exceptions to this rule, necessarily few in number, are confined to experienced Christian workers who give evidence of possessing the natural gifts and literary proficiency required for a satisfactory pursuit of a course in theology. The number of such admissions will be determined by available room space, but shall not exceed four each year. In all cases a transcript of record of work done in college or other institutions must be submitted.

DIPLOMAS, CERTIFICATES AND DEGREES

On completion of the prescribed four-year course of study with satisfactory grades students who hold the degree of A.B. or its academic equivalent receive a diploma carrying the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.). Students who have not taken full college training, but complete this course satisfactorily, receive a diploma without degree. A student who takes a part of this course, passing the required grades, may receive a certificate specifying the work completed. A graduation fee ($10.00) is charged, which covers the cost of diploma, cap and gown, hood and other incidentals.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

Applicants for admission to these courses must submit transcripts of record of work done in institutions in which former courses were pursued.

These twenty hours apportioned to the major shall be divided into a minimum of fourteen semester hours of classroom work and six semester hours to be credited for a satisfactory thesis on a subject chosen from the field of the major. The thesis, which must be characterized by literary excellence, shall contain not less than 10,000 words. Minor subjects covering not less than ten semester hours shall be chosen from any major departments of the curriculum not related to the major subject. Transfer credits from standard orthodox seminaries will be accepted, subject to the approval of the Credits Committee, to satisfy the residence requirements other than the minimum of one year required by this Seminary.

4. An exhaustive oral examination will be required in the field of the major subject conducted before a committee of the Faculty by the professor in whose department the work is taken. Satisfactory written examinations shall satisfy the requirements of the minor subjects.

5. In addition to completing the courses leading to the oral and written examinations, each applicant is required to write a dissertation of not less than 50,000 words. The subject shall be chosen by the applicant in consultation with the major professor, and its development must show thorough preparation and excellent literary form. The dissertation must be filed with the major professor thirty days prior to the granting of the degree. Bibliotheca Sacra

Founded in 1843

This 128-page theological review became the organ of the Dallas Theological Seminary in January, 1934. Each of the quarterly numbers contain enough material to make a fair-sized book. At the yearly subscription of $2.00 the scholarly and helpful discussions of live subjects contained in the four numbers average only 50 cents each issue. No minister or instructed layman can afford to be without this literature at this price. Sample copies are sent out with the understanding that they will be returned should the recipient not care to subscribe.

The current issue carries a fifty-page article by Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, dealing with the present discussion of Dispensationalism. One reader of the manuscript has said: "This is the first attempt to systematize this subject." This one contribution is worth the price of subscription.
